

ADVANCE INFORMATION SHEET

THE HISTORY OF WARFARE

Wars, weapons and military history have never lost their fascination – not merely the drama and action of the events, but also the technology and hardware. Through human history, conflicts between kings and nations have been decided by violence and bloodshed. And as the world's population has soared, so too has the scale of these wars, culminating in the 20th century with two world wars that between them killed more than 100 million people. This book chronicles the thousands of battles, campaigns and wars of recorded history, from the clashes of the first empires of ancient Mesopotamia to today's armed conflicts being fought – ironically – in largely the same areas of the Middle East.

Throughout The History of Warfare runs a continuous timeline, century by century identifying the wars fought by succeeding generations of powers and empires. This is illustrated by more than 300 photographs, drawings and maps, with data tables, biographies of the kings and generals who led armies to war, and background data on the evolution of weapons and their use. In addition, an A–Z reference lists more than 2,000 of history's significant battles, their dates, winners and losers.

The History of Warfare gives the reader a uniquely clear and accessible global panorama of wars and warriors. Fully illustrated throughout, it makes a quick and easy reference for experts and enthusiasts alike, and a handy history for the general reader.

Key selling points

- Timeline of 5,000 years of warfare
- Biographies of the principal commanders and leaders
- Explore weapons from spears and swords to rockets and missiles and aircraft from balloons to UAVs
- Maps of selected battles
- A-Z of over 2,000 great battles throughout history
- Over 300 photographs, maps and tables

SPECIFICATION

Format: 256 x 134mm, Pb with flaps
 Extent: 256pp, Approx. 75,000 words
 Illustrations: Over 300 illustrations and maps
 ISBN: 978-1-84931-151-9
 UK RRP: £12.99
 Publication: September 2018
 Also available in the larger size of 280 x 215mm

ANTHONY EVANS is the co-author of The History of World War II and The History of Aviation. Having trained as a cartographer at the Ordnance Survey he moved on to book publishing in the early 1970s, being involved in the production of many hundreds of classic military titles.

DAVID GIBBONS also co-authored The History of World War II and The History of Aviation. He entered book publishing in 1970 and has worked for the top military publishers in the UK including Conway and Arms and Armour Press.

For further information please contact Worth Press Ltd:

For Foreign Language Co-editions: Cristina Galimberti on worthpress@123media.co.uk

For USA/UK/Canada/Australia: Ken Webb on jenh0507@aol.com