

William Shakespeare

The Complete Works

Here are all of Shakespeare's recorded plays, poems and sonnets, gathered together in a glorious volume that should take pride of place in every home, as well as making a vital contribution to schools, colleges and libraries. Augmented by over 500 illustrations and an exclusive Timeline Poster, this is no tedious textbook but emphasizes the enjoyment that can be had when exploring the Bard's output. Hailing from Queen Elizabeth's I's Merrie England – since when over four centuries have passed – today William Shakespeare is the most-read author in the world, drawing enthusiastic admiration from every age group, every nation, and every category of audience ever known. Owning this prestigious volume will provide an opportunity to discover (or rediscover) the joy of the drama and climatic plots plus the magic of the words therein – the incredible manipulation and often creation of language.
